Onsted Selects Kurzweil and JST

Job Skill Technology, Inc. (JST, Inc.) is proud to announce that Onsted Community Schools has selected Kurzweil 3000 software to provide reading, writing and study skills tools to students throughout the district. The software will be installed in each building, making it accessible to all students. Kurweil 3000 is a multi-sensory software program that allows students to access curriculum via the computer and to improve their independent learning skills. JST, Inc. is proud to represent Kurzweil and is excited about this partnership with Onsted Community Schools. The school district is pleased to be working with JST, Inc., knowing that they make customer support a highest priority.
